Dr. Scott Hahn will be here at our Cathedral on Sat., April 10, for a free morning event. Dr. Hahn is a well-known Catholic Professor of Theology and Scripture, author, speaker, and apologist. The free event begins with 8 AM Mass, followed by two talks. Space is limited, so register early at <https://stpaulcenter.com/stjoseph/>. If you need assistance registering, contact our Parish Office.

Message from Father Hansen . . . Here we are, already to the 3rd week of Lent. This past week we sent a couple of emails from the parish office to all parishioners, friends, and school families. One was introducing the new principal for the 2021/22 school year and the other was an opportunity to register for the Dr. Scott Hahn talks on April 10th. I want to also encourage you to put on your calendars Mass with Bishop Johnston on March 19th, St. Joseph's Day, 6pm! This will be the 150th anniversary to the day of the first Mass by a Bishop in the Cathedral of St. Joseph. This historic moment, in the Year of St. Joseph, should bring many graces. Please email the parish office (at: tteschner@cathedralsj.org OR mnold@cathedralsj.org) if you are coming to the Mass with Bishop Johnston and how many will be seated with you. People will be coming from around the Diocese and the Chancery is requesting RSVP's.

In the email introducing the new principal I gave a little background on the search committee and where the new principal, Catherine Neumayr (pronounced "new-meyer"), came from. Here is a longer biography of Catherine:

Catherine Neumayr is a California native born in San Francisco and raised in southern California. She comes from a large devout Catholic family. Her father and mother were both college professors specializing in philosophy and English literature, respectively. Their love of learning and fidelity to the Faith deeply influenced Miss Neumayr's upbringing.

Miss Neumayr enjoyed school greatly. She attended elementary Catholic school at Our Lady of Grace and knows how critically important laying an early foundation of excellence in education of the mind, body, and spirit is to the ultimate success of an integrated person. Miss Neumayr then attended La Reina, a Catholic all girls' middle and high school, where she enjoyed great academic, athletic, and leadership success.

Miss Neumayr was accepted with honors to the University of San Francisco where she completed a Great Books program called the St. Ignatius Institute and enjoyed her junior year abroad at Oxford University studying theology, philosophy, and literature under the Dominicans. This year abroad sparked a powerful interest in travel that became a lifelong passion to see the world and extend her education beyond the classroom. Her many trips to Europe as far as Istanbul and to places like Costa Rica and Brazil as well as frequent trips across the United States have inspired in her an appreciation for the world and a profound love for the United States of America.

Upon graduation, Miss Neumayr was offered a position in the Admissions Office at her alma mater, USF. For four years she recruited domestic and international students as well as coordinated many special programs for groups of students visiting the school. This experience deeply influenced Miss Neumayr in the importance of helping parents and students find their true academic home. Although the job was exciting, Miss Neumayr knew she wanted to teach. When her high school principal called to invite her to come home to teach English, Theology, and History, she went immediately and enjoyed nine years of honing her craft while completing her Master's in Education at Pepperdine University. While working at LRHS, Miss Neumayr was tapped to be the College Counselor and the Faculty Elected Representative to the Administrative Team. Both additions to her teaching load added immeasurably to her interest in School Administration.

It was, however, when she moved to Anchorage, Alaska for a grand adventure teaching at a small K-12 classical Catholic school that she realized her full potential. There, Miss Neumayr was tasked with developing the writing program for the school and frequently was called upon to improve the curriculum and instruction of the Upper School. She mentored many teachers. After six years in which the school was declining in numbers due to poor administration, she was chosen to lead the school as the strong Principal in which she oversaw the elementary, middle, and high school. This experience allowed her to develop the marketing, academic, and development programs that restored the school to its original strength. She doubled the school's numbers as well as improved morale and academic excellence. For seven years she proudly led the school to local, state, and national recognition.

In 2018, Miss Neumayr returned home to California to care for her aging parents and enjoyed a year-long sabbatical in which she homeschooled a niece and nephew who are hockey phenoms. She then took a position at Canyon Heights Academy, a Catholic Elementary School of Distinction in the San Jose area, where she could be near her parents but return to Head of School responsibilities. Miss Neumayr had no idea that her two years there would include leading her school through an intense WASC Accreditation in which the school was recognized for a six-year accreditation (the highest possible award). Days after the accreditation award was given, Covid-19 arrived and the school was ordered into distance learning; after 24 hours of preparation, Miss Neumayr began a distance learning full-time school for the remainder of the school year. In October of 2020, she was able to have grades PreK to 5th grade back to school in person but maintained a Dual Track program where the teachers taught the in person and distance learners simultaneously. This January 2021, she opened the Middle School for Dual Track in person/distance learning as well. The challenges of the pandemic have truly tested her and shown her that with God and a great team of Board members, faculty, staff, students, and parents, she can accomplish anything!

While at Canyon Heights, her parents and all her siblings moved to the East Coast. She loves her twelve nieces and nephews and her aging parents and siblings too much to live across the country from them. Fr. Hansen encouraged her application to Cathedral School of St. Joseph. She has visited and looks forward to bringing her experience, love of learning, organization, and leadership qualities to St. Joseph. The beautiful Cathedral of St. Joseph stole her heart! She plans to begin work at Cathedral School on July 12th. She hopes that families will feel free to stop by to say hello!

EASTER EGG DROP

The 8th grade class is taking orders for the Easter Bunny!! Surprise the special children in your life by treating them to a visit from this "busy" bunny. For $30, the 8th grade class will visit your home (or designated house) on Easter Eve and hide 40, candy-filled eggs. They will also leave one large custom sign in your yard signed by the Easter Bunny!! If you would like any extra signs they will be $5 each and $5 for each set of 10 eggs extra (both optional). In the morning, the children will be thrilled to wake up to this surprise. Pick up your order forms in the Cathedral school office, print them off from Ms. Lujan's email to all parents or email ehodapp@cathedralsj.org for a form. Order forms need to be turned in by Friday, March 26th. This is always a HUGE hit with the children. Proceeds go to help fund the 8th grade Mystery Trip, Scholarships, & Legacy Project.

Thank you so much for your support!
